

For God so loved the world...

Did you like the song, in the movie just to the left?

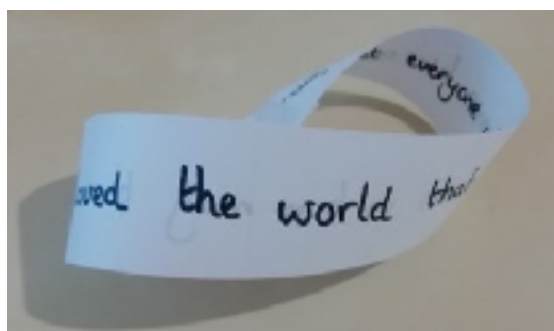

The point is God love is for everyone including those who do things wrong.

Nicodemus was walking at night time when it was dark to have a chat with Jesus. After the chat, Nicodemus was still confused and 'in the dark' meaning he didn't understand what Jesus was saying. Jesus then said these words "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not die, but have eternal life." This means God's love is for everybody, whatever you do today or any day.

You could make a Möbius strip to help you understand.

You will need: a strip of paper about 2cm x 10cm, pen, glue.

On the piece of paper write the words -

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not die, but have eternal life."

Fold your strip into a ring, putting a twist into it and glue the ends together.

The Möbius strip is an infinite shape which has no start or end - if you draw a line along it with a pencil, you will get back to exactly where you started. That is what eternity is.
